

be ordered to pay the entire cost of mediation and should be compelled to attend mediation.

5. The Defendants now want to use an unfiled motion to dismiss as the basis and an excuse to cause an unreasonable delay in the case and violate the court's previous order to attend mediation.
6. Mediation is a separate and independent process to resolving a motion to dismiss and should not be delayed so the defendants can "see what happens" with their unfiled motion to dismiss.
7. Deadlines are passing and the Plaintiff insists on at least attempting to move the case along in an orderly fashion to get some progress in the case, rather than finding a new excuse every week to cause a delay and a reason for why court ordered deadlines can't occur.
